

Alex Malyshev and Guy Ben-Ami's Cannabis Article Published in The US-Israel Legal Review

January 28, 2021

In recent years, Israeli startups have been looking at creating a potentially significant medical, and in the future, recreational, cannabis industry. More and more these companies will look at the U.S. market for business and investment opportunities. In an article published by The US-Israel Legal Review, Alex and Guy explore what Israelis should be considering when contemplating opportunities in the U.S. market – what is legal, what is not, and what companies should generally be aware of.
