

Carter Ledyard Client CooperSurgical Completes Acquisition of AEGEA Medical

February 03, 2021

On February 1, 2021, Carter Ledyard client CooperSurgical, Inc. completed its acquisition of AEGEA Medical and its FDA-approved Mara™ Water Vapor Ablation System to treat heavy menstrual bleeding in the doctor's office. CooperSurgical is a subsidiary of The Cooper Companies, Inc. (NYSE), a leading global medical device company operating in the vision care and women's health care industries.

Carter Ledyard corporate partner David Karabell, corporate counsel Mary Brown and corporate associate Caitlin Dey Harrison handled this transaction for CooperSurgical, with assistance from corporate associates Brielle Kilmartin and Jane Elberg. Tax partner Jennifer MacDonald, benefits counsel Patricia Matzye and Land Use partner Christopher Rizzo also assisted with the transaction.

related professionals

David I. Karabell / Partner

D 212-238-8852

karabell@clm.com

Mary W. Brown / Partner

D 212-238-8765

mbrown@clm.com

Brielle E. Kilmartin / Associate

D 212-238-8652

kilmartin@clm.com

Christopher Rizzo / Partner

D 212-238-8677

rizzo@clm.com
