

Carter Ledyard Mourns the Loss of Heywood Shelley

April 27, 2018 / less than a minute

Carter Ledyard mourns the passing of our former partner Heywood Shelley, who died on April 3 at age 90. Heywood was our colleague for 58 years after he graduated from Columbia College and Columbia Law School. As head of our real estate practice, he represented George H.W. Bush, Pall Corporation, and the owners of the New York Mets, for whom he drafted the first lease at Shea Stadium. More details can be found at <http://mobile.easthamptonstar.com/Obituaries/2018419/Heywood-Shelley-90>.
