

Carter Ledyard Partner Judith Wallace to Present on Art Law in the Wake of COVID-19

March 01, 2021

On March 25, 2021, in a virtual program sponsored by the American Bar Association, Carter Ledyard partner Judith Wallace will present, “Art Law 201: Online Sales and Copyright in the Visual Art Arena,” with co-panelists Alexandra Darraby and Emily Behzadi. The program tracks the legal issues that will or have already arisen from the hard-economic impact of COVID-19 on the art market. The webinar is presented by the American Bar Association’s Arts & Museum Division, as well as the International Division, of the Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries.
