

Carter Ledyard Partner Judy Lockhart to Participate in Panel Discussion on Combatting Workplace Harassment

March 04, 2021

On Thursday, March 11th, Judy Lockhart, Chair of Carter Ledyard's Employment Practice, will serve as a co-panelist in a virtual program on combatting workplace harassment, hosted by Howard Kennedy. The program, "#UsToo – Combatting Workplace Harassment," carries forth the ideas that originated in the #MeToo movement, but seeks to shift the attention of abuse in the workplace from celebrities to recognize people from all walks of life. In addition to addressing the legal and practical issues employers face, the program will touch upon the challenges of a remote working environment, where the lines between professional and personal interaction are often blurred.
