

Carter Ledyard Partner Michael Shapiro Featured in Netflix Documentary "Get Gotti"

October 24, 2023

Carter Ledyard's own partner, Michael Shapiro, appears in the upcoming Netflix docuseries "Get Gotti," discussing his involvement as a member of the first federal Gotti trial defense team in the landmark case the United States v. Gotti from 1986-1987.

Michael's expertise in criminal defense has garnered him a reputation as a formidable attorney and an exceptional legal advocate. With a career spanning a half-century, he has consistently demonstrated unwavering dedication to his clients and a deep commitment to upholding an impeccable standard. His impressive track record includes a series of successful cases such as United States vs. Ivankov and Cantor Fitzgerald L.P. v. Cantor Fitzgerald, Inc, demonstrating his ability to navigate complex legal terrain with finesse.

To learn more about Mr. Shapiro's illustrious career and the other highlights of his legal journey, please visit his bio here.

"Get Gotti," a riveting series set to captivate audiences worldwide beginning on October 24, 2023, delves into the gripping details of John Gotti's life and legal cases and the circumstances surrounding them. We encourage everyone to tune in to witness the expertise of Michael Shapiro and recall the life and times of this notorious figure in this compelling series.

related professionals

Michael Shapiro / Partner

D 212-238-8676

mshapiro@clm.com
