

Carter Ledyard Represents Red Hawk Casino in $190 Million Bank Loan Refinancing

December 14, 2015

Corporate partner Steven Paul McSloy represented the Shingle Springs Tribal Gaming Authority in its $190 million refinancing of its existing bank loan for its Red Hawk Casino located in Northern California. The refinancing significantly reduces the Authority's interest costs and allows for future expansion of its very successful casino. McSloy had previously represented the Authority in its combined $505 million Rule 144A bond offering and bank credit agreement in 2013.
