

Chris Rizzo to Present CLE on New York Environmental and Land Use Law

April 28, 2022

Join Carter Ledyard's Environmental and Land Use Director, Chris Rizzo, for a continuing legal education program (1 Credit) addressing the two themes that will likely define New York environmental and land-use law for the next decade: Climate Change and Affordable Housing. Chris will discuss state and local legal efforts to address climate change and the housing crisis, concluding with discussion of the environmental record of Supreme Court Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson.
