This website may be considered attorney advertising under the rules of some states. The hiring of an attorney is an important decision that should not be based solely upon advertisements. Furthermore, prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.

The information at Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP's web site is intended as general information only and not as specific legal advice. The communication of information and the receipt of information from this site and from and to those connected with and maintaining this site does not and is not intended to establish an attorney-client relationship. Readers should be aware that email communication is not secure and therefore cannot be treated as privileged or confidential. Visitors to this site should not act on the information found at this site but should seek professional legal counseling relating to their specific situation(s). Attorneys at the firm would be pleased to speak to interested parties. Our practice is to document all new client representation with an agreement setting forth the terms of the representation.

Any information sent to Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP by email or through the Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP website is not secure and is done so on a non-confidential basis. Communication with Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP (or any of its attorneys or staff) by email through this site does not create an attorney-client relationship.
