

Judith Wallace Elected to Board of Directors of Meritas Global Alliance of Law Firms

December 21, 2023

Carter Ledyard announced today that Judith Wallace, the Firm's Managing Partner, has been appointed to the Board of Directors for Meritas, a global alliance of independent law firms that serves the legal needs of companies doing business in multiple markets. Ms. Wallace was elected to the position from the more than 8,000 attorneys in the Meritas member network and will serve with 20 others from around the world.

"Judith Wallace is a proven leader in the Meritas network, with keen insight into helping clients enter and expand in other markets and industries," said Sona Pancholy, president of Meritas. "As a member of the Meritas Board of Directors, Judith will provide a unique perspective to the continued growth and innovation of our network."

Since 2022, Ms Wallace has served as a member of the Leadership Committee of the Global Firm Management Forum. As a board member, she will participate in strategic planning, member recruitment and development, and the administration of Meritas' rigorous quality standards, which sets the network apart from other legal organizations.

"I couldn't be more thrilled to be a part of the leadership of this exceptional organization as a member of the Board. Speaking on behalf of my entire Firm, we have developed important and productive relationships from being in the Meritas network, and the Meritas network has enhanced our ability to serve our clients," said Ms. Wallace.
