

Marc A. Kushner Joins Carter Ledyard as Partner

February 23, 2017 / less than a minute

Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP is pleased to announce that Marc A. Kushner has joined the Firm as a tax partner and head of the Firm's Tax Department effective February 1, 2017. Mr. Kushner has a broad-based tax practice, with a particular focus on partnership (including limited liability company), corporate, real estate and real estate investment trust (REIT) tax and tax transactional matters. Mr. Kushner has advised clients on, negotiated and structured the tax (and non-tax) aspects of numerous partnership, operating and other agreements and transactions, including a number of multi-billion dollar transactions. Mr. Kushner has represented, and continues to represent, a number of exempt organization clients, advising these clients on their agreements and transactions. Mr. Kushner has also successfully represented clients in Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and state and local, audits and inquiries.

---