

Michael Shapiro Opines on O.J. Simpson Parole Hearing

July 20, 2017

Co-chair of Carter Ledyard's white collar practice, Michael Shapiro, has been quoted by ABC News, the Chicago Tribune and the ABA Journal about O.J. Simpson's impending Nevada parole hearing. Mr. Shapiro, who was a TV commentator during the entire course of Simpson's California murder trial, noted that if the parole board believed that Mr. Simpson had gotten away with murder in California as the Nevada sentencing judge seemed to believe, given the severity of Simpson's attempted robbery sentence, his parole chances could be jeopardized.
