Every client and matter receives my full dedication, hard work, personal approach and creativity. I work hard to protect clients' interests and to reduce the potential risks related to their businesses. I strive to deliver the highest quality legal work by finding the best solutions for clients in accordance with their goals. I take a collegial approach and I am inspired by finding solutions to unique problems and novel legal issues.

Claudia brings an international background to her practice with experience in counseling clients to navigate the legal and regulatory environment doing business in the United States and abroad. She has experience helping companies expand their business in the United States, including by forming subsidiaries and joint ventures.

Claudia represents financial institutions acting as corporate trustees and agents in connection with a wide variety of capital markets transactions and situations, and represents financial institutions and private companies in a broad range of domestic and cross-border complex transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, equity securities and secured and unsecured loan financings.

Outside the Office

I am passionate about figure roller skating and I enjoy roller skating at community events. I like dancing, running, and biking, and enjoy keeping a healthy lifestyle, eating green, and practicing yoga and mindfulness. I love learning about cultures different than my own, and getting involved in community service, including my volunteer work in the immigration field with Cuny Citizenship Now!.
