I strive to make clients feel comfortable and confident that their goals are being achieved with their best interests in mind. My practice is client-centered lawyering because I believe the focus should be on understanding my clients' wants and needs. I truly enjoy helping others, and there is no better feeling for me than a job done well.

Corporate attorney Jenny Frank counsels domestic and international clients on their entity formation, corporate governance, and contract and regulatory compliance. Jenny also has experience representing private and public companies in capital market transactions and complex transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, securities law compliance and public disclosures, and financings, leveraged refinancing, and restructurings.

She keeps up to date with state-of-the-art legal technology to gain a unique advantage in her practice for transactional matters. Clients appreciate Jenny's timeliness, friendliness, and understanding when it comes to handling their projects. She places importance on learning about, and advocating for, technological changes in the corporate world such as utilizing software applications, e-commerce, blockchain and blockchain-based technologies, and the use of APIs and smart contracts.

With her background in legal technology, Jenny naturally recognizes and looks for ways to solve cybersecurity and data privacy issues. She strives to provide the best solutions for her clients while staying mindful to keep them compliant and ahead of their relevant industry standard. Jenny is experienced in drafting the full suites of privacy documents, such as privacy policies, terms of use, specific data processing policies, cookies policies, notices for third party data sharing, and related disclosures on website and mobile application platforms for all industries. She has comprehensive knowledge of the data privacy and compliance universe including the GDPR, CCPA/CPRA, all current and upcoming individual comprehensive state privacy laws, New York Shield Act, NYDFS Cybersecurity Regulation, GLBA, HIPAA, and more.
