I am a relentless litigator and I am excited by the challenge of difficult legal questions in a wide array of areas and industries. I am committed to finding creative solutions for my clients, leaving no stone unturned.

Kevin Simpson is an associate in the Litigation Department. He has worked on many complex cases in a variety of practice areas early in his career. Prior to joining Carter Ledyard, Kevin clerked for the Supreme Court of New Jersey, The Honorable Jack M. Sabatino, P.J.A.D.

Outside the Office

I am an avid sports fan, particularly basketball and baseball, and I play basketball recreationally. I also enjoy reading a variety of fiction novels and political history books and listening to political and true crime podcasts.
