

Still Hot: The National Law Journal Names Carter Ledyard to Its “2016 Midsize Hot List”

May 25, 2016

The National Law Journal named Carter Ledyard & Milburn LLP as one of the top 20 midsize law firms in the U.S. on its “2016 Midsize Hot List.” In the last seven years, the Journal has selected Carter Ledyard to its Midsize Hot List six times, more times than any other law firm.

Explaining to the Journal how Carter Ledyard has attracted such a broad range of clients, Managing Partner Judith Lockhart said: “When you have expertise it is easy to attract interesting clients. I think as a midsize firm we can be more competitive — which allows us to attract a broader range of clients.”
